

One and Two Liners of Fr. Paul

Don't be fooled!

Where we expect the least, we sometimes find the most. (Fr. Paul to Bro. Anthony Wallerstein, s.a., July 22, 1907)

Happy in old age:

I note that you have been through some pretty severe operations; but it is quite wonderful to live to be 84 years of age and at the same time to be cheerful and happy, owing to the never-failing presence of God the Holy Spirit, exercising you in the Christian virtues of faith, hope and charity. (Fr. Paul to M. McG. of New York City, May 24, 1935)

Humor in working for Christian unity:

I note that you belong to the High Church of England. In other words, you are one of our neighbors. I hope, however, you will cross the street some day and enter the Fold of Peter. (Fr. Paul to McC. of Beacon, N.Y., Jan. 9, 1933)
