

Most Holy Trinity - June 7

We call upon our listeners to become At-one-mentists, that is, those who have entered into the practical possession of their birthright in Christ, living a life of at-one-ment with the Three Persons of the Adorable Trinity: the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit. Only when we realize experimentally this glorious status of union with God, so that we are in God and God in us, can we be filled with a sense of great joy and thanksgiving, for where God is, there is heaven, and when we have God within us, the joy of heaven ought to be there also.

Worldly people, who have no experimental knowledge of the Atonement, wonder how a young girl of wealth and high social position can turn her back upon it all and enter a convent. They pity the poor, deluded thing. But their pity is all wasted upon the desert air. Men and women forsake all things as did the Apostles to follow Christ in the religious life because they know that by so doing they will more fully and more perfectly realize the words of St. Paul: "We joy in God through Our Lord Jesus Christ by Whom we have now received the At-one-ment." [Rom. 5:11] That is to say the status of intimate union with God, in that union enjoying intimate communion not only with Christ, the Son of God, but also enjoying the communion of God the Father and God the Holy Spirit, the Three Persons of the Adorable Trinity and finding thereby more happiness and more real personal joy than the world, under the most favorable circumstances, could possibly give to any of its votaries. Therefore, because it will make you infinitely rich in the possession of God here on earth and in heaven eternally, we invite you, one and all, to become AT-ONE-MENTISTS! (Fr. Paul on St. Anthony's Hour, July 11, 1937)
