Glad Tidings with Fr. Bob

by Fr. Bob Warren, SA

A little boy and his brother went to visit their grandma. As the little boy said his night prayers, he was shouting at the top of his voice, "Please God, send me a bicycle, send me a tool chest," and all that. His brother said, "Not so loud, for crying out loud, God isn't deaf." The little boy replied, "Yes, I know, but grandma is."

So why did I tell you this amusing little story? Well, the friars have just held their 17th General Chapter, a time when elected delegates from all over the world came together to choose new leadership and plan the future of our community. To be frank, we need your prayers. You don't have to shout at God like the boy in the story, but I ask you to please include the friars in your prayers. Ask that God will guide us and show us His will for the future. I know it is not a mere coincidence that as the friars began their 17th Chapter meeting, word arrived that the US Conference of Catholic Bishops would consider helping to open the Cause for sainthood for Fr. Paul Wattson. Our founder, Fr. Paul, now named a Servant of God, lived his life as an apostle of Christian unity and charity; he formed our past and informs our future.

And so we face the future with confidence as we recall the words of scripture, "Whatever you ask for in prayer with faith, you will receive." Matt. 21:22

And that is Glad Tidings.

Become a Friar

Servant of God, Apostle of Charity

During the 17th General Chapter Meeting of the Friars (see page 4) word arrived that the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops would consider giving the green light to Timothy Cardinal Dolan of the New York Archdiocese so he can begin the formal Vatican process of the cause for sainthood of Fr. Paul Wattson. "Our Society's founder, Father Paul Wattson, now called a Servant of God, guided us throughout the Chapter as did the spirit of St. Francis," said Fr. Brian Terry, SA, newly elected Minister General. "Delegates came away with a renewed sense of their role in the Church, their work of Christian unity and in the spiritual lives of our fraternity...Servant of God, Fr. Paul of Graymoor, pray for us."

Fr. Paul had a very charitable heart. In one sermon, he offered these thoughts about God's love for everyone who loves Him. His words still apply and make us ask, "What would happen if Christians could see the face of Christ on everyone they meet?" Fr. Paul reminds us, "The breadth of the love of Christ is illustrated by those outstretched arms on Calvary's tree...Between those outstretched arms is the capacity of love to embrace them all. It is not the very intellectual, the very cultured people, nor the people who are highly educated which he loves most, but He loves the peasant, he loves the unlettered, He loves the ignorant. His arms outstretched in charity are for everyone that responds to that love.

Therefore, no matter what the station of life, or what the race represented by the individual, he can look up with the fullest confidence upon that figure on the Cross and say of him, "He loves me very much, and, if I had been the only being in the world that had gone astray, he would have been willing to go through all that suffering for me, and for me only."

From a sermon of Fr. Paul Wattson delivered on Sept. 20, 1925, found in the Atonement Sisters' archives.

Father Paul Wattson took possession of Graymoor on June 14, 1900, the feast of Corpus Christi. He climbed through the wild to the summit carrying a heavy, rough cross, which he had fashioned out of a tall cedar tree from the foot of the mountain. This cross is still on the grounds for pilgrims to see and pray before.

Rev. Lewis T. Wattson,
(Fr. Paul) 1863-1940

"Fr. Paul, Servant of God", apostle of Christian unity and charity, co-founder of the Society of the Atonement.

17th General Chapter Meeting & Council Election

Following the tradition begun with St. Francis of Assisi, every five years Atonement Friars dispersed throughout the world to come together at a General Chapter to elect administration and to set the course for their future. “I set before you life or death. Choose life... (Dt. 30:19)” was the theme of this meeting of thirty-one delegates who prayed and reflected on their heritage and made decisions to lead them into the future, wherever God calls. Delegates reconfirmed commitments to the heart of evangelization, faith, charity and spiritual renewal.

completed his second five-year term, read a letter from Bishop Angelo Becciu, Substitute of the Secretariat of State for the Holy See. “His Holiness is confident that the present Chapter, inspired by Moses’ admonition to “choose life”, will provide sure guidance to the friars in their daily efforts to reappropriate the fervor of their first love and to express it in a radical embrace of the evangelical counsels in the spirit of St. Francis and his first followers.” The Holy Father encouraged each of the friars to be a living witness to the joy of the Gospel and a messenger of reconciliation and peace.

They will seek vocations and develop strategies for forming friars for the future. They will work toward creating quality of community living, and to cultivate leadership at all levels of the fraternity. The friars also reaffirmed that Fr. Paul Wattson’s “Union-that-Nothing-Be-Lost” principles,—to waste nothing, to use all their time, talent, substance, and opportunity for the greater glory of God and the salvation of humanity—will guide the fulfillment of their mission to reconciliation, healing and peace.

A Friar Reflects on Rome

by Brother Gregory Lucrezia, SA

After being in Rome almost five years and seeing the beatification of John Paul II, the resignation of Pope Benedict, the election of Pope Francis, his installation and now the canonization of Pope John Paul II and John XXIII, I feel that my time in Rome has been rewarded. Living in New York State almost my whole life, the opportunity to be part of history here in Rome is truly a blessing.

On the eve of the Second Vatican Council on January 30, 1963, Atonement Friars were received in audience by Pope John XXIII. Left to right: Br. Alfonsus (Angelo) Spitalieri, SA; Br. Denis Sennett, SA; Fr. Raphael Grande, SA; Pope John XXIII; Cardinal Gregory Peter Agagianian, SA; Fr. Germanus (Peter) Tomaino, SA; Fr. Salvator Butler, SA; Fr. Celestine Leahy, SA

Being part Polish and being able to witness both the beatification and canonization of John Paul II is something to cherish. John XXIII was pope during my Novitiate, and I have fond memories of his brief pontificate and his calling together the Second Vatican Council. Being in the crowd of over 800,000 people on Sunday and mingling with many of them before and after the Canonization made me realize that there is still a great love for the Church and devotion to her saints. Because of our Minister General, Fr. James Puglisi, I was able to get seated quite close to Pope Francis. Unfortunately, TV cameras were blocking part of my view but I was there, in person, and to me that was important. I am not sure if any other Friars were in St. Peter's Square, but I was, and the memories of the day will last for a long time.

While I was sitting with many other priests and religious waiting for the ceremony to begin, I remembered in prayer all of our benefactors who make it possible for a friar like me to live in Rome and have a chance to be part of our Church's history. Sharing my thoughts about this event is my way of letting you, in some way, be a part of what has taken place. When Pope Francis canonized these two new Saints, he added two Popes who influenced our lifetime. There are many Saints, but most of them we know by reading about them. Pope John XXXIII and Pope John Paul II lived in our time, and many of us saw Johannes Paulus as he walked among us. Let us treasure this day and ask these two new saints to intercede with almighty God for us and our families. May God bless you!

Brother Gregory Lucrezia, SA, currently is Procurator

Retirement Planning & Charity

A charitable gift annuity helps you with two very important objectives. During your lifetime, the annuity provides you or a loved one with an immediate charitable income tax deduction for the gift portion of the annuity because part of each annuity payment you receive is tax free and you receive guaranteed fixed payments for the rest of your life. The rate of return depends upon your age at the time you fund the annuity and the amount you fund. Your financial advisor will be in the best position to talk about the options that are best for you and your family.

There are three types of annuities:

- 1 SINGLE LIFE: provides you with fixed payments throughout your lifetime.
- 2 TWO LIFE: provides you and a second beneficiary with fixed payments.
- 3 DEFERRED: gives you the option of putting off the receipt of fixed payments until a later date.

A Charitable Gift Annuity is a contract between you and the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement. You transfer cash or other assets, such as stocks, bonds or securities, to the Friars in exchange for guaranteed payments for the rest of your life. Three types of annuities can provide income during your retirement and help the Atonement Friars continue their ministries after your death.

You may fund your annuity for as little as $5,000. Anyone age 55 and older is eligible for any type of annuity.

Participants in the Charitable Gift Annuity also receive membership in The Father Paul Wattson Society, which honors benefactors of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement who have made a significant gift toward our mission of reconciliation and healing.

For more information on funding a Charitable Gift Annuity to help the ministries of the Franciscan Friars of the Atonement, please call Margaret Coyle, Associate Director, Special Gifts at 1(800) 338-2620, ext. 2130.

St. Anthony's Corner

St. Anthony, gentlest of Saints, your love for God and charity for his creatures, made you worthy, when on earth, to possess miraculous powers. Miracles waited on your word, which you were ready to offer on behalf of those in need. Encouraged by this, I ask you to hear my prayers.

Dear Fr. Bob,

I was blessed to have the opportunity to visit Graymoor recently and see the "original St. Anthony's corner" in St. Francis Chapel. It has been years since I had been there, and I wanted to make a special pilgrimage before I retire to Florida.

When I was a very young girl, I had visited Graymoor with my family, and the place held such dear memories. One of my special memories was of a St. Anthony rosary my Mother purchased for me at the bookstore. One of your friars blessed it for me then took us to the Chapel so we could put our special intentions before the statue of St. Anthony.

I prayed that beloved rosary for fifty years, but sadly I lost it about 10 years ago. Knowing I was coming back to Graymoor, I prayed to St. Anthony to help me find a suitable replacement.

Imagine my joy when I entered the Graymoor bookstore last month and found a rosary nearly identical to the one my Mother purchased for me more than 60 years ago! I cannot express my happiness. I'm sure St. Anthony was involved in helping replace my lost rosary!

I just wanted to tell you how blessed I feel to have come to your home and to have had the opportunity to pray in St. Anthony's corner again. Graymoor is such a special place. God Bless you for sharing it with us.
